

ARMY AND NAVY TO SEE
EDISON AS STRONGHEART

Wednesday Will Be Service Night, and Many Officers in Uniform Will Attend.

Army and Navy night is announced for the National Theater Wednesday night, when officers of both the army and navy and a number of ambassadors will witness the performance of Robert Edson in "Strongheart." Football and the race question are the predominant features in this play. Among those who have secured boxes for this occasion are Gen. T. H. Barry, General Humphrey, Major Richardson, and Colonel Hatfield. Many of the officers will appear in full dress uniform.

NEARLY 700,000 ON
NATION'S PENSION LIST

In his monthly report Commissioner of Pensions Warren states that in the month of February 2,929 civil war pensioners were dropped from the rolls because of death, but the net decrease of civil war soldiers drawing pensions, however, was only 1,993, there being 1,936 added to the roll during the month, thus making the total number of civil war soldiers on the pension rolls for the month of February 673,955.

On January 31 the total number of persons drawing pensions from Uncle Sam on account of service in the different wars was 999,237, and on February 28, one month later, the number had been decreased to 999,997—a net decrease of 1,339. The complete loss to the pension roll during the month of February was 4,231, as follows: Deaths, 3,801; remarriages, 74; legal limitation, 118; failure to claim, 80; and other causes, 38.

DOCTOR FEARS SMALLPOX.
DEVELOPS CHICKEN POX

Fears that Dr. C. C. Phillips, of Owensboro, Ky., who attacked Detective Barber in the Pennsylvania railroad station yesterday afternoon and announced that he supposed himself to be suffering from smallpox, were allayed today when the health authorities diagnosed the visiting physician's case as being chickenpox.
